TIDE IS TURNING IN FAVOR OF RUSSIA

Japanese Now on the Defensive---Abandon Important Position.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 10.—General Sakimori, in a dispatch this morning confirms the press reports of the occupation of Benishir by Russians. The Japanese retired after a skirmish.

CAN HOLD OUT A YEAR.

Rome, Oct. 10.—The newspaper Matton asserts that Port Arthur is in a far better condition than the latest reports place it. They have ample stores at the port, says the paper, to keep the garrison going twelve months. Many depots having escaped damage by the Japanese shells, only a great assault, it is said, can take the fortress. The garrison now comprises twenty-three thousand soldiers, and sixteen thousand sailors.

RUSSIANS HAVE LOST 30,000 MEN.

Rome, Oct. 10.—The Giornale d'Italia has a dispatch from St. Petersburg estimating that the Russian casualties at Port Arthur and Liau Tung Peninsula and in fighting up to the evacuation of Liau Yang amount to thirty-three thousand killed, wounded, and taken prisoners.

JAPS FALLING BACK.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 10.—A dispatch from Mukden says that the Japanese are falling back on Liau Yang, which the Russians intend to attack.

TROOPS ARE FIGHTING.

Cheliabinsk, Russia, Oct. 10.—There is the greatest activity on the railroad. Men, munitions and artillery are passing through, bound eastward.

GOING TO THE HILLS.

Mukden, Oct. 10.—A crossing of the Taitse river east of Benshir by Russian cavalry shows that the Japanese are retreating on their position at Liau Yang and in the hills east of Ventai. The Japanese, after approaching the Hun river, appear merely to hold Kuraki's late battle ground, where cannon firing upon Russian cavalry occurred during the morning and afternoon of October 7.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The Temps has a dispatch reporting that the Russian right flank is engaged in an artillery battle twelve miles from Mukden.

THE TIDE TURNING.

London, Oct. 10.—Simultaneously with Gen. Kuropatkin's announcement to his army that the time had come for a forward movement there comes news that the Russians have captured Bentshapitz, one of the strategic points held by the Japanese. The event did not precipitate a severe engagement, though the Japanese are reported to have suffered a considerable loss, the turning of their position having exposed them to a severe fire. In his address to his army, Gen. Kuropatkin asserts that the Russians have a force numerically superior to that of the Japanese and he predicts a telling victory for his soldiers. The retirement of the Japanese on their position at Liau Yang is construed as evidencing the desire of Field Marshal Oyama to draw the Russians into an attack upon a strong defensive position. The dry weather is favorable to military operations.

The fleet blockading Port Arthur is reported to be more than usually alert watching for British ships that are supposed to be planning to take supplies to the harbor.

YOUNG BATHER DROWNS IN SURF

Niece of Former Postmaster General the Victim.

Several Others Were Rescued—Six Perish in a Tunnel.

WERE KILLED BY COAL GAS

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 10.—Miss Bessie Wilson, of Clarkburg, West Va., was drowned yesterday while bathing at Virginia Beach. She was a niece of the late Wm. L. Wilson, former postmaster-general. Miss Mary Wilson, her cousin, and Miss Mary M. Simpson, of Buchanan, Va., Miss Eliza Dillon, of Indian Rock, Va., and Miss Louise Latimer, of Washington, D. C., were rescued by United States life-savers. The party went into the surf accompanied by E. Stormont, a resident of the beach. He was teaching them to float and before he was aware of it several of the young women had drifted beyond their depth. Mr. Stormont swam to the shore and launched a small surf boat. He succeeded in getting Miss Mary Wilson, Miss Simpson, Miss Dillon and Miss Latimer aboard. Before he could reach Miss Bessie Wilson the boat capsized. Realizing his inability to save all the party, Mr. Stormont returned to the shore and ran to the life-saving station for help. The crew immediately launched the surf boat, and reached the drowning girls in time to rescue four, but when Miss Bessie Wilson was picked up life was extinct.

SIX DIED IN A TUNNEL.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 10.—Six men employed by the Grand Trunk were suffocated by coal gas in the St. Clair tunnel. A coal train broke in two in the tunnel and three of the crew suffocated while trying to escape. The engineer and two other rescuers perished in trying to get the train out.

The Dead.

These are the gentlemen who made bids on the market house job and who were entitled to the contract at the first opening of bids. "I understand that there will be street contracts let shortly, but am confident that they will go to the blimble people, so that lets us out," Mr. North stated at the depot. "When there is any brick street work to be done I will be on hand to bid."

Mr. North stated that he thought Paducah was a good town and promised much in the contracting line. He has big contracts under way at both Eddyville and Hopkinsville, and is looking after the work.

BLOCK SIGNALS

REPORTED THEY WILL BE INSTALLED ON MEMPHIS DIVISION.

It is reported that the I. O. will immediately install a complete block signal system on the Fulton and Memphis districts of the road.

It was stated today that plans have already been made and that the order will be given out in a day or two to begin the work. The business between Fulton and Memphis is very great and the block system is needed there as much as on the Paducah district. Where one train is run between Paducah and Fulton, ten are run between Fulton and Memphis. The system is expected to be in operation by the first of next year.

GROANS OF THE DYING FOLLOW THE CRASH

Twenty-Seven Killed in a Wreck in Missouri Today.

Warrensburg, Mo., Oct. 10.—Twenty-seven people are already dead and several are dying, and thirty-five injured, as a result of a collision between a Missouri Pacific world's fair special and the first section of an extra freight a mile east of here at four o'clock this morning.

The freight was under orders to await the passing passenger train at Monticore. Section one went through, burning the customary red lights, it is said, indicating that another section was coming, but through some misunderstanding of orders the freight pulled out and ran head on into the passenger.

Every car was filled to the limit. There was no baggage car, and when they hit the freight demolished the passenger locomotive and ploughed over the wreckage and three-fourths of the way through the first coach.

Nearly all the dead and fatally injured were in this car.

The dead and injured, terribly mutilated, are lying on both sides of the track. The end of one row is formed with the corpses of five little boys.

Soon after the arrival of the relief train the bodies of the twenty-seven dead were taken to Warrensburg, while the injured were removed to the hospital at Sedalia. Nearly all the victims were residents of southwestern Kansas.

AT SAN FRANCISCO U. D. C. MEET NEXT

Annual Convention Ended Saturday Night at St. Louis.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis Elected Honorary President-General—Other Officers Chosen.

UNION VETERAN IS HONORED

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—After a brief day session the United Daughters of the Confederacy concluded their annual convention Saturday night, the feature of which was the election of the office of honorary president general, to which Mrs. Jefferson Davis was elected. In the election of the office a question arose over the proposition that it would establish a precedent and supersede the office of first honorary president, occupied by Mrs. M. C. Goodlett, of Nashville, Tenn., the founder of the organization. Mrs. Goodlett herself settled the discussion by arising and gracefully conceding in the plan in saying: "I am only one of the daughters, while Mrs. Davis is the wife of our first president."

She was accorded tremendous applause and the convention then took formal action in ratifying the proposition.

C. W. H. Kniss, of Columbus, O., a union veteran, was elected an honorary associate member in recognition of the fact that he had looked after the graves of Confederate soldiers buried at Camp Chase, O., and caused marking stones, designating the graves to be placed. The election of officers resulted.

Honorary President General Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

Honorary Presidents—Mrs. M. C. Goodlett, Nashville; Mrs. Stonevill Jackson, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. Virginia C. Clay, Clayton, Huntsville, Ala.; Mrs. W. B. Pritchard, San Francisco.

President—Mrs. A. T. Smythe, Charleston, S. C.

First Vice President—Mrs. Basil W. Luke, Louisville.

Second Vice President—Mrs. J. B. Beale, Montgomery, Ala.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. John P. McKean, Nashville, Tenn.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Virginia E. McSperry, Martinsburg, W. Va.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. V. Leiga, Norfolk, Va.

Custodian—Mrs. S. E. Gabbette, Atlanta, Ga.

After considerable debate and discussion, San Francisco was chosen as the place of meeting for the next convention, the time to be decided by the president. The convention then adjourned sine die.

A PAINFUL INJURY.

Blaine Kilgore, foreman at the Kilgore heading mills in Mechanicsburg, while working at a machine this morning was struck on the right leg by a flying piece of timber and the member badly bruised. The injury was dressed by Dr. J. S. Troutman. Mr. Kilgore will not be disabled long, however.

Mr. J. Otto Thompson, of Gokonda, was in the city yesterday.

HAND MASHED

BAKER MEETS WITH A PAINFUL INJURY.

Frank Mittelboeschler, a German baker employed at the Krentzer Bakery on Kentucky Avenue near Second street, was badly injured this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock by his left arm catching in the bread roller. He was at work cleaning the bottom roller when his hand was drawn in between the two rollers. Two fingers were broken and the hand badly mashed. The bones in the wrist escaped. The machinery was stopped and the unfortunate man's hand taken from the roller as soon as the accident was seen. Dr. D. T. Stuart attended him and it cannot be determined for several days whether or not the arm will have to be amputated.

SWITCHMAN HURT

FELL FROM THE FRONT OF ENGINE.

Henry Holcombe, colored, a switchman employed in the local Illinois Central yards, had a narrow escape from probably fatal injuries last night while working in the yards on a switch engine.

He was riding on the pilot of the engine which was going after a cut of cars, when he fell off. He tried to push away from the engine as he fell but only succeeded in getting past the pilot. He got caught under the cylinder head and dragged. Fortunately he fell on the right side, the side the engineer occupies, and as he lost his balance the engineer shut off steam and applied the air. The engine came to a stop but not until after the switchman had been dragged some distance and his chest badly bruised. The injury was dressed at the local Illinois Central hospital, and is not serious.

BACK TO FULTON

PADUCAH IS NOT BIG ENOUGH FOR TOM LOFTUS.

Tom Loftus, the aged resident of Fulton who has been drinking all the whiskey he could get for about fifty years, will be sent home by the first train today. Chief of Police Collins has no place for him, and does not think Paducah is big enough for Loftus, who years ago was a resident, but has made his home in Fulton for the past twenty or thirty years.

Loftus was recently sent to the asylum from Fulton, but he was only suffering from "jimmies," and when he got better was turned out, and arrived here Saturday. He has been very wild in the lockup today, but the authorities will soon be rid of him.

The Homestead, Pa., steel plant of the Carnegie company will resume operations, giving employment to 2,000 men.

Lightning recently struck an Ohio man and cured him of rheumatism, so his widow says.

IT WOULDN'T WORK

Effort to Swindle Former Paducahan Dailed.

Mr. A. G. Gilbert Written to By a Spanish Swindler.

An effort was made a few days ago to make Mr. A. G. Gilbert, the well known tobacco man, formerly of Paducah, but now of McKenzie, Tenn., a victim of a big swindle, which has already claimed many dupes throughout the country.

Mr. Gilbert was in Paducah a few days ago at the New Richmond Hotel, and the story of the attempt is that a short time ago Mr. Gilbert received a letter from party in Barcelona, Spain, saying he was a party in a military prison at that place; that he was related to Mr. Gilbert by marriage and had a request to make of him. He said that when the Spanish war broke out and before that time he went to Cuba to fight for Spain, but on seeing the real condition of the Cubans deserted and joined them. He was captured and returned to Spain, where he was now serving an 18-year sentence. He had in a London bank £3,500, amounting to $17,500 American money, and in some convent in Spain a young daughter, his wife having died, and that he wished to make Mr. Gilbert her guardian, and give him possession of the money. A case like the above happened not long ago in Louisiana, the party being worked for $500 which he put up to get the $17,500 and some have gone so far as to make the trip to London to secure the money only to find themselves duped.

Not so with Mr. Gilbert, who is a sound, conservative business gentleman, not to be worked by a professional Spanish claiming relationship, so he declined to take in the bait.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00.

HEIR TO MUCH PROPERTY.

Joe McCallan, foreman of carpenters on the marine ways, has received information that he is one of the heirs to about $400,000 worth of property in Baltimore. He resides at Fourth and Tennessee streets and is father-in-law of "Chief" Harry Lloyd, Paducah's baseball manager. He left yesterday for Cincinnati to join other relatives and enter claim to the property.

TOBACCO GROWERS ORGANIZING FAST

Meetings Held in Several Counties Saturday.

Efforts Being Made to Hold the Crops Until They Get What They Want.

MUCH ENTHUSIASM IS SHOWN

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 10.—Hundreds of Christian county farmers met at the courthouse Saturday and formed an organization on the plan adopted at the Guthrie meeting to resist the trust.

Dr. John D. Clardy, former congressman of the Second Kentucky district presided, and outlined the plan of the association. He stated that arrangements had already been made with the banks in Hopkinsville, Clarksville and Springfield, by which money was to be advanced on tobacco stored by members of the association in suitable warehouses where it could be properly protected and the profitable disposal of the crop negotiated. A board of directors composed of one member from each magisterial district was elected. E. D. Jones was chosen as chairman and D. J. McCord as vice chairman of the board.

John A. Browning was elected county secretary. All the farmers present signed the constitution adopted at the Guthrie meeting.

IN BATH COUNTY.

Owingsville, Ky., Oct. 10.—At Sharpsburg, this county, Saturday a large and enthusiastic crowd of Bath county tobacco growers met to organize. W. H. Hawkins, of Lexington, president of the Turkey Tobacco Growers' association, called the meeting to order and made an address. An organization was effected and it was decided to send buyers to all parts of the county to buy the present tobacco crop and to receive it both here and at Sharpsburg. Several companies have already had representatives inspecting the crop, and in some cases twelve cents per pound was offered, but no sales are reported. They meeting this afternoon, it is believed, will result in the Bath county tobacco growers holding their crops for a while longer, and getting higher prices.

STILL OTHERS HERE.

Franklin, Ky., Oct. 10.—The dark tobacco growers of this county met Saturday and organized by electing J. R. Claypool chairman, S. D. Neely, vice chairman and Robert Gillespie secretary. They start with one hundred members who represent thirty per cent. of the crop grown this year. Their purpose is to fight the trust. It was shown by statistics that the producers lost two million and trusts made twelve million dollars out of last year's crop. They will become members of the association formed at Guthrie and defray part of their expenses in marketing the present crop to best advantage.

IN TODD COUNTY.

Elkton, Ky., Oct. 10.—At a meeting of representative Todd county tobacco growers for the purpose of organizing the planters against the tobacco trust, committees were named from the six magisterial districts. C. C. Reynolds was elected county chairman and executive committee, and Russell Hogan, secretary. Petitions will be circulated through the county asking every planter to subscribe to the constitution of the dark tobacco district as adopted at Guthrie on September 24.

CURES CHILLS AND FEVER.

G. W. Wirt, of Naacogdoches, Texas, says: "His daughter had chills and fever for three years; he could not find anything that would help her till he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it." 50c.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS.

The John Summers took a tow of coal to Memphis for the United States Coal and Coke Company, and will be taken from Cairo to Memphis by the Mary Michael.

A Clarksville, Tenn., dispatch says: Clarksville has been somewhat alarmed at the prospect of extremely low water during the time that it will take to fill up the dam at Look A, which has just been completed. Alderman Z. Dean went to Look A yesterday to investigate the matter, and learned from Engineer Ellis that the river at Clarksville would fall from three to six inches, while the gates at Look A are closed, but that a low stage would last only one day. Mr. Dean reports that there need be no fear of a water famine, as the fall will not be enough to close down the pumps at the water station.

The river continues to fall, with 1 foot on the gauge. This a fall of four-tenths since Saturday. The weather is clear and warm, with prospects of rain.

The Henry Harley left at 8 a. m. today for Cairo with a good list of freight and passengers.

The Henry Harley will lay over at Cairo Saturday on account of the crowds that desire to come up from the street fair.

The Bob Dukey did not arrive yesterday on account of being aground above here. She will come in today and leave at once on her return.

The Royal arrived from Golconda and returned at 2 p. m.

The Clyde is due from Tennessee river and will unload at Brookport. She returns to Tennessee river at 6 Wednesday night.

The tie boats seem to have ceased entirely.

Very little repair is necessary on the big excursion boat "J. S." of Duquenne, low at the marine ways here. The painting, however, will probably require three weeks or longer.

The Charleston after unloading at Brookport, will leave tomorrow evening on her return to Tennessee river.

It is reported that the Lee line contemplates buying the steamer Dick Fowler for use in one of the short line trades out of Memphis. It is not yet certain, however, to whom she will be sold, and the Fowlers have received no assurance that the Lee line wants the boat.

JO PARKER

Paducah Man and Populist Buys Paper.

He Will Begin Running the Louisville Labor Journal for Tom Watson.

Jo Parker, chairman of the national executive committee of the populist party, has purchased of James McGill the Journal of Labor, a labor paper that Mr. McGill has conducted in Louisville for the past six years.

The purchase was made several days ago, but was not made known until yesterday. It is understood that, while the paper will support Tom Watson, the populist candidate for president in the present campaign, it will continue to be conducted as a union labor paper. The first issue of the paper under its new management will appear next Friday.

It will not be Mr. Parker's first venture into the field of journalism. He was several years ago editor and publisher of a small paper in Paducah, printed up stairs over one of the law offices on Legal Row, and known as the "Kentucky Populist."

It is supposed that after the present campaign Mr. Parker will remain in Louisville and edit the paper.

TO HAVE NEW UNIFORMS.

Paducah fire ladders are soon to have the "quick biton" uniforms which are used by firemen in many of the large cities. They can be slung on in a jiffy in the night when there is often not time to dress, and in addition to being a protection from cold, are water proof. They will probably be used only at night, and the firemen will continue to wear the regulation uniform except during fires. The new uniforms have been ordered.

A THIRD ROUTE PAST WICKLIFFE

Illinois Central to Build a New Track.

The Old Route Between Fort Jefferson and Wickliffe Is to Be Abandoned.

RIGHT OF WAY BEING BOUGHT

A corps of Illinois Central engineers are surveying the third route for a new line of track to obviate the necessity of using the present track near the Mississippi river between Ft. Jefferson and Wickliffe, Ballard county. On account of the river which is eating into the hill at the above point, it is only a matter of time until the Illinois Central will have to abandon its present track and build one east of the bluff which stands as a barrier against further roadmaking in that vicinity.

Two routes have already been surveyed and begin at a point near Ft. Jefferson, bear to the right of the hill, pass through the east portion of Wickliffe and intersect with the main line north of Wickliffe.

The route that is now being surveyed begins at a point several miles farther south and will miss Wickliffe from one to two miles, passing east of the place. It will intersect at Harlow with the Paducah and Cairo branch of the Illinois Central and trains will be run over that line to Cairo and the north and to Paducah and the east.

Representatives of the railroad company are also on the ground purchasing options on land along the three routes and it is not yet known which one of the routes will be used. Chief Engineer Wallace has given out a statement that within ninety days work will be in progress on one of the routes, the most available one to be selected after the present survey is completed.

BOY GONE

PARENTS TELEPHONE TO THE CITY BUT FAIL TO LOCATE HIM.

The police last evening received a telephone message from a Mr. Murphy, of Dyersburg, Tenn., stating that his 15-year-old son, Clarence, had disappeared and could not be found. He is supposed to have run away from home, and was believed to have come to Paducah.

The police watched the trains for him, but failed to find him on any of them and think he probably made his way towards the World's Fair.

TWO TO HANG ON SAME DAY.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 10.—A double hanging is set for Memphis December 2. Judge Moss passed sentence on Perry Buckley, white, murderer of James Phipps, and "Toots" Taylor, colored, murderer of Sam Gaines.

Disclosures of flagrant violations of the interstate commerce laws by private car corporations will, it is said, be made before the Interstate Commerce commission, which met today in Chicago. Many prominent business men of Chicago have been summoned to testify.

EYES OF THE WORLD WILL BE ON PADUCAH

Many Will Witness the Launching of Gunboat Tomorrow.

New York Papers Give Paducah Nice Notices—Miss Yeiser's Maids of Honor.

MISSSES BUCKNER AND BAGBY

The attention of people all over the United States will be called to Paducah tomorrow morning when the gunboat "Paducah" is launched at 11 a. m., at Morris Heights, N. Y., and christened by Miss Annie May Yeiser, of Paducah.

There is quite a colony of Kentucky and former Paducahians now residing in New York, and it is expected that there will be a large representation of them to see the "Paducah" take a plunge.

The New York Evening Sun gave Paducah quite a notice last Friday, as follows:

"A special train will bring a party of Kentucky people to New York on Tuesday, Oct. 11, for the launching of the gunboat Paducah, which is being built at Morris Heights, on the Harlem river. The train will reach the Grand Central station at 10:25 o'clock with most of the launching party and invited guests. Two of the maids of honor to the sponsor and several Paducah people temporarily or permanently located in New York will board the cars at the station. The party will reach Morris Heights at 11 o'clock and the launching will take place as soon after their arrival as possible. At noon there will be an informal banquet at the shipyard.

"On board the train when it arrives here from Washington will be Miss Annie May Yeiser, the sponsor, and her sister, Miss Florence Yeiser. Others in the party will be Dr. D. A. Yeiser, the five-time mayor of Paducah, and the father of these two young women; Col. Henry Yeiser, a transplanted Kentuckian who has made a fortune as a manufacturer in Cincinnati, O., and ex Representative Charles K. Wheeler, of the First Kentucky district, who succeeded while a member of congress, in having a gunboat named for his home town. Several young officers from the navy department have been detailed to act as escort. The two maids of honor to Miss Yeiser, both of whom are now in New York, will join her at the Grand Central. They are Miss Blanche Buckner, lately prima donna of the "Isle of Spice" company, playing at the Majestic Theatre, and Miss Adeline Bagby, a Paducah girl, who won a gold medal when she was graduated last year from a local dramatic school. All of the young women belong to well known Kentucky families. The Misses Yeiser are granddaughters of the late Judge Philip Yeiser, who retained his political popularity, notwithstanding the fact that he was a union leader in a Secession stronghold during the Civil war. Miss Buckner is a cousin of ex Gov. Simon Bolivar Buckner, of Kentucky, one of the three surviving lieutenant-generals of the Confederacy. Miss Bagby comes of pioneer stock. Her ancestors have been prominent in the military and civil history of their state for over 100 years. The new city hospital at Paducah was recently named for her grandfather, the late Dr. Reuben Saunders, one of the most prominent physicians in the south."

MEET TONIGHT

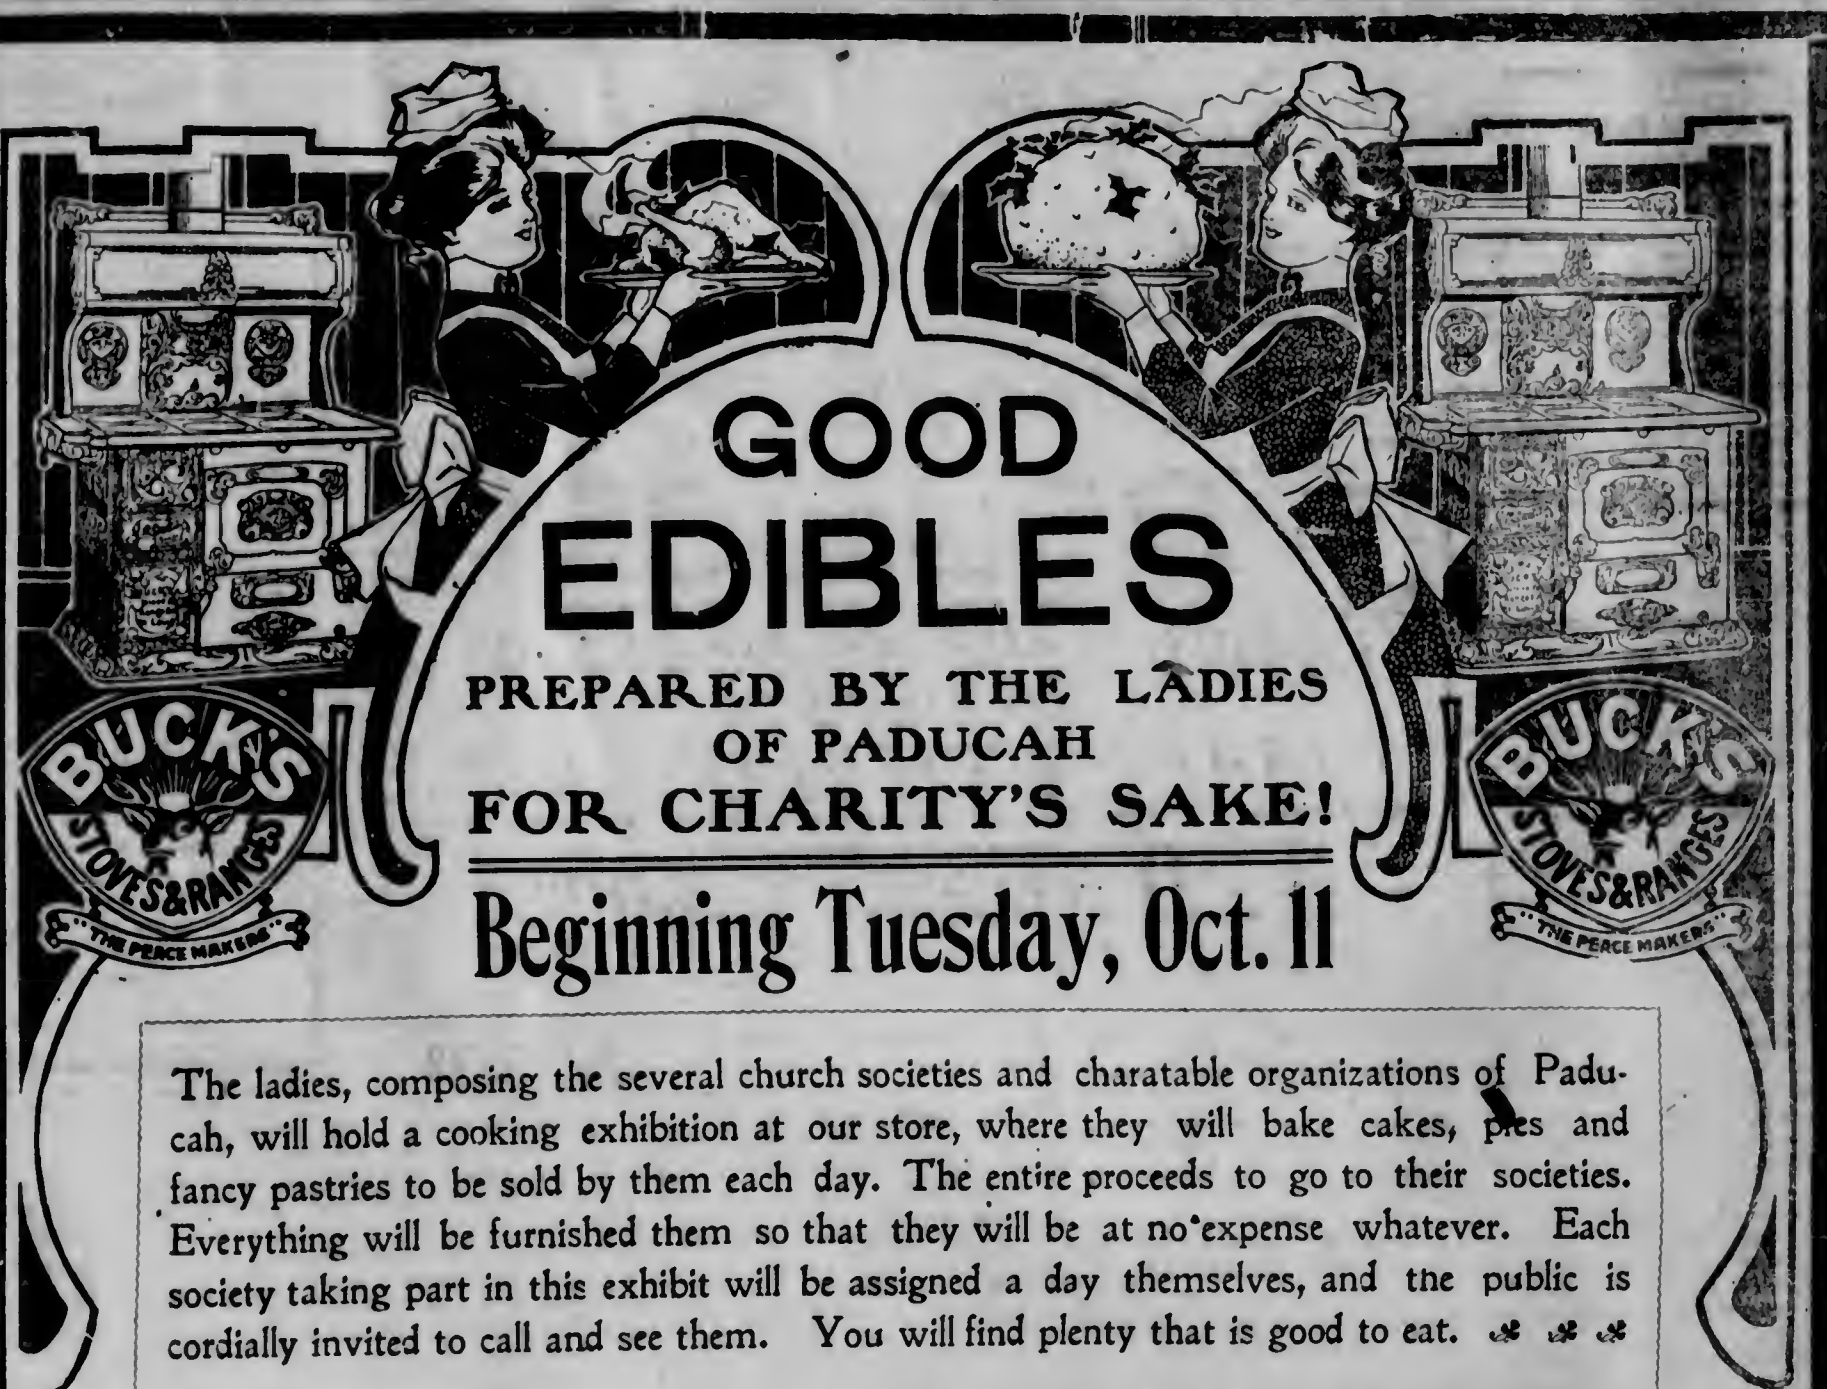

POLICE BOARD WILL HOLD ITS REGULAR SESSION.

The board of fire and police commissioners will hold its regular meeting this evening but have no business of special importance.

They will probably authorize the five new fire alarm boxes and leave it to Fire Chief J. J. Wood where to locate them. Another thing they will be asked to pass on is the enlarging of the side door at the South Side fire station, so the trucks can go through there.

WAS TOO LATE

EDITOR CLAUDE JOHNSON DID NOT LAND THE NATIONAL BARBERS.

Editor Claude Johnson, of the Journal of Labor, Paducah, has returned from Louisville where he went Friday to confer with delegates to the National Barbers Convention at Louisville relative to adopting the Journal of Labor as their official organ, as the National Barbers' Convention did here last week.

He would no doubt have been successful but for the fact that he was two days too late, as the convention had already voted funds and instructed the secretary to resume publication of their own paper.

BOAT AGROUND

BOB DUDLEY HAVING TROUBLE IN THE EVANSVILLE TRADE.

The Bob Dudley was due Saturday night from Evansville, but failed to show up. It was learned yesterday that she was aground at Green's, the old "Cincinnati Bar" about midway between Paducah and Evansville, and did not get off for several hours.

She passed Caseyville yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, and should have been here before morning, but she failed to show up, and no doubt got aground somewhere below Caseyville. The river is getting so low that even the smallest boats will be unable to get to Evansville in a day or two, unless there is a rise.

PADUCAHANS WIN PRIZES.

The Courier-Journal announces that among the prize winners in the Wagon Bug contest are the following Paducahans: First prize, $100, Frank Lucas, Paducah; third prize, $20, L. F. Hugg, Twelfth and Monroe, Paducah. Mr. Lucas will get only one-nineteenth of the total $100 prize, however, as he is only one of nineteen winners. Mr. Hugg was the only winner of the third prize. The above was only for the September contest.

THE WEATHER.

AN INEFFECTABLE ISSUE.

A democratic cartoon picture the republican elephant as being plastered over with issues that won't come off. One of these is labeled "The Coal Strike." Here is truth, indeed. The action of President Roosevelt in settling the coal strike in 1902 will never be effaced from the memory of the American people, and yet there is one point about that action of the president that does not seem to be sufficiently emphasized. Much stress was laid upon the fact that the employees were enabled to go back to work; that their claims and contentions were in a large measure satisfied; and that, on the other hand, the operators were glad to have their mines and their men again busy at an increased output.

But the great benefit that came from Theodore Roosevelt's action in the coal strike in 1902 was shared by millions of coal consumers in the New England and Middle states. The situation was indeed intense, and suffering had commenced on every hand. There were thousands, yes, millions—of people who were obliged to pay exorbitant prices for a small amount of coal, or who were not able to obtain it at any price. It is these millions of people who remember with gratitude the action of a president who dared to have the courage of his convictions, and so the cartoon picturing a plaster upon the old elephant's back of the coal strike issue which won't wash off is indeed much truer than the cartoonist intended. That American people will never allow that action of their president to be effaced from their memories.

John Sharp Williams once said that were he nominated for president it would immediately be said that his platform was the amended Constitution of the state of Mississippi. And he knows that platform would have trap-doors in it.

Between the slough of despond and the kind of mad Gorman leads his party into, there seems to be very little to choose, but Judge Parker would do himself credit by choosing the former.

Parker Constitution clubs would stand better in the public estimation if the Parker politicians did not lead one to suspect that "the Constitution does not amount to much between friends."

It is always well to remember that one calamity howler can make more noise than a hundred people who are perfectly satisfied.

Mr. Davis seems to be a little afraid that instead of getting a run for his money he will have to run and hide it.

Is Judge Parker attempting to win votes by the use of absent treatment?

LOOSE AGAIN

STRANGE ANIMAL CHEWS SLATS AND KILLS CHICKENS.

Mr. Sam Caldwell, of West Broadway, the well known lawyer, is minus a dozen and a half chickens, and thinks that the same "varmint" which killed so many dogs and chickens last winter in the woods in that vicinity, is responsible for the loss.

He had a large chicken coop built and had placed his fowls in the coop with a lot of meat and other stuff from the table. This is what he thinks attracted the animal, whatever it might be. The coop was removed to another part of the yard and the slats chewed in two, all the food eaten and the chickens killed or released.

STAFF MEETING

LOCAL L. C. OFFICIALS RETURN FROM LOUISVILLE.

Trainmaster Henry Schenck and Master Mechanic R. J. Turnbull, of the local L. C., have returned from Louisville after attending the monthly staff meeting of Superintendent A. H. Egan.

All members of the staff were present and the business of the division in general was discussed. It was found that the business on the division was steady and almost equal already to the heaviest business of the road last winter.

The Paducah shops were found to be in excellent condition and running with full force. The work is being turned out as quickly as possible and no detrimental shortage in motive power was found to exist. The affairs of the division could not be better and the meeting was satisfactory in every detail.

AT LIVE BIRDS

SHOOT TO BE HELD BY THE GUN CLUB TOMORROW.

Tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the afternoon the Paducah Gun club will hold its last live bird shoot of the season for the club championship. All local marksmen who are members of the club are urged to attend. This will decide the club championship and it is likely there will be a large attendance. There will be a meeting of the directors of the club following the shoot to settle all matters pertaining to the annual part of the shoots held during the summer. It is understood the shoots were not expensive to the club as all fees paid in for entrance will cover the expense of the tournaments.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

The police were today notified that Con Lawrence, who was confined in the Mayfield jail for some misdemeanor, had made his escape, but gave no particulars. He is supposed to have come to Paducah, and the police are offered a reward if they capture him.

Mr. Joseph Greff and family have returned from the fair.

PHONE 63REV. W. E. CAVE
WILL REMAIN HERE

Unanimous Call Extended to Him.

He Will Likely Remain as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

NEWS OF OTHER CHURCHES

The Rev. Dr. H. W. Marquess, of Louisville, filled the pulpit yesterday at the First Presbyterian church, preaching strong and able sermons. At the close of this morning's service a congregational meeting was held and the Rev. Dr. W. E. Cave was called to the pastorate. Dr. Cave has been identified with the church here for about twenty years and is greatly beloved by his people, who are rejoicing over the prospect of his return to them. Dr. Cave resigned a year ago to accept a call to Raleigh, N. C., but his health has prevented his continuing work for some time.

It is stated that Dr. Cave will accept the call here, for his heart is with the Paducah church, but some formalities will have to be gone through with first. Dr. Cave's many friends here will rejoice over his decision to remain in Paducah.

Yesterday morning at the First Baptist church the choir rendered "In the Hour of Trial," one of the compositions of Prof. Charles Davis, formerly of Paducah, who died some months ago in Alabama. The solo part was sung by Mr. Wood, of Louisville, and was very beautiful. It was a touching tribute to the memory of the musician who was well loved in Paducah.

The service at the First Christian church did not close last night, but the interest was so great that it was decided to continue it at least several days longer. There were three additions to the church last night and one yesterday morning, making twenty-seven in all.

Rev. W. H. Pinkerton has conducted the meeting entirely alone, and has preached some strong and searching sermons. Large crowds heard him yesterday.

The officers and teachers of the Broadway Methodist Sunday school will hold a reception in the Epworth League parlors of the church on Thursday evening. This is for the purpose of coming together and arranging plans for the fall and winter work, and will partake both of a social and business nature.

Although the interest in the First Christian church revival is unabated, owing to previous engagements, Dr. Pinkerton announced last night that it would be necessary to discontinue the meetings Tuesday night. Three united with the church last night, making a total to that time of twenty-seven who have accepted Christ during the meeting.

It will be known in a day or two whether or not Dr. Lloyd will accept the Bishopric of Kentucky. He is now at Boston attending the big convention of bishops, and Episcopals. At least two states—New York, his home, and Kentucky, are much interested in what his answer will be.

A dispatch to yesterday's papers from Boston express the fear that he will decline. The telegram says:

"While it is impossible to learn definitely the intentions of the Rev. Dr. Lloyd as to his acceptance of the Bishopric of Kentucky, an inadvertent remark he made in the course of an address indicates that he is inclined to retain his present position as general secretary of the Missionary Society. He remarked that when three years hence he appeared, as he hoped he might, as the advocate of the missionary work, he was confident that the record of the past three years would be materially bettered."

MORE ROOM

NEW SCHOOL IN MECHANICS-BURG OPENED THIS MORNING.

This morning the crowded condition of the Mechanicsburg school was relieved by the opening of an auxiliary school.

The new school was absolutely necessary as in the Langstaff school there was too much work for one teacher and the principal. The arrangement made for handling the pupils is as follows: The new school was given to Miss Lillie Barline and Prof. Rouse and Miss Audrey Taylor placed in charge of the old school. There was a little confusion this morning when the transferring was made but by tomorrow the schools will be working smoothly.

The football and basketball teams of the Paducah High School have received challenges from the Cairo teams and as yet no answer has been given. The Cairo teams are said to be strong but the Paducah boys have no fear of them and will undoubtedly accept the challenge in regular form.

WHILE ASLEEP

BARNEY LEVITAN CLAIMS HE WAS ROBBED OF $60.

Barney Levitan, the lower Kentucky Avenue junk man, reported to the police yesterday the loss of $60 in $5 and $10 bills. He claims that the money was concealed in his bed, and was removed Saturday night some time while he was asleep. A peculiar feature of the alleged theft is the fact that $6 or $8 in silver that was with the currency was not taken. A man who had been working about the place is missing, and the police have found no trace of either him or the money.

BOAT THIEF

ARTICLES TAKEN FROM LOCKER ON THE INERY HARLEY.

William Griffiths, an assistant to the steward on the Henry Harley, reported to the police today that while he was at the World's Fair, some one got into his locker on the boat and took a fine safety razor. The police also received information that at the same time a watch belonging to a daughter of Steward Shaver was stolen from the locker, the thief leaving no trace. The police are looking for the stolen property, but thus far without success.

FEW DEATHS

YOUNG TENNESSEAN DIES IN THE I. C. HOSPITAL HERE.

The four months old child of Mr. C. A. Wyatt of the Mulber section of the county, died from membranous croup last night and the remains were today buried at the family graveyard.

LUNACY TRIAL FOR FORMER OFFICER

Tom Murray's Friends Fear He is Deranged.

Case Continued in Police Court—Benton Court Resumed Today.

NEWS OF OTHER COURTS

BANKRUPTCY COURT.

Referee in Bankruptcy E. W. Hagby does not know when the Julius Looser case will come up here for trial. Looser filed petition in bankruptcy sometime ago, after claiming that he had sold his store, on Second street and was on his way to St. Louis with $2,250 to settle with creditors, when robbed in Carbondale, Ill., after being given "knockout" drops.

Objections have been filed to granting the discharge and the creditors claim fraud, alleging that the money is being fraudulently concealed. The creditors will now have to prove their allegations, or the discharge will be granted.

Looser is now an organizer for Southern Illinois for the Woodmen of the World, and makes his headquarters in Cairo. The charges of the creditors just filed in Louisville were not new here, as they were made when the robbery story was first told.

It is probable most of the proof will have to be taken to Illinois.

Frank Covington has filed a suit here against the Illinois Central for $2,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received August 1, 1904 at the Tennessee river bridge by a ladder on a freight car breaking, causing pain for injuries by the fall.

JUSTICE BURNETT'S COURT.

Justice J. H. Burnett today began his regular court and is calling the docket. There are no important cases for trial at this session.

TRACEY INDICTED.

Chief of Police James Collins has received word that Tom Tracey, the steamboat man arrested here a few months ago for murder committed at Madison, Ind., had been indicted.

He cut Gus Sloferman's throat over a woman Christmas night, 1903, and had been working here for some little time when arrested by Patrolmen Gus Rogers and William Johnson. His trial will begin tomorrow at Madison, and if he is convicted the Paducah officers will have $250 coming to them as a reward for his capture and conviction.

THE BENTON COURT.

Court began at Benton today again, and the suit of G. F. Smith against the N. C. & St. L. and the Paducah Street Railway for injuries received in a collision at the crossing here, is to come up for trial. He asks for $2,000 damages.

TRIAL AT EDDYVILLE.

The case against Ollie Brown, alias Sam Jones, alias Sam Lightney, alias Jordan Lightney, colored, who attempted to shoot and cut Conductor George F. Mullinix on train No. 122, will today be tried in Eddyville for malicious assault with intent to kill.

This morning Detective W. T. Dinneen, Conductor George F. Mullinix and Joe Masley, the latter who undoubtedly saved Mullinix's life when Brown made the attack, by grabbing Brown and assisting in overpowering him, left for Eddyville where the trial will be held.

DEEDS.

NO COUNTY COURT.

Wheeler Campbell, his attorney, stated that from indications Mr. Murray's mind is affected, and has been for some time past, and said that it was desired to file in information with the county attorney, and have the accused tried for lunacy, which would probably be done some time to day.

Judge Sanders thereupon continued the case until Wednesday, and if a charge of lunacy is sustained, will file it away. Officer Murray's friends claim that he has been acting in an unusual and usual manner for some time past, and fear that his mind is permanently affected.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED.

Mr. T. S. Dulles, president of the Paducah Commercial club, and the well-known wholesale and retail druggist, yesterday celebrated his 50th birthday. WEDDING BELLS ARE
JINGLING MERRILY

Miss Carrie Robison to Wed a
Virginia Man.

Several Paducah Couples Are to Be Married This Month
Sometime.

BANS HAVE BEEN ANNOUNCED

News has just been received here of the approaching marriage of Miss Carrie Robison, of this city, to Mr. Glasgow, of Richmond, Va. The wedding will take place tomorrow at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Jane Wright, of Paducah, Caroline county, Va.

Miss Robison has been spending the summer in Virginia visiting her sister, Mrs. J. O. Ford, of Richmond, where she met Mr. Glasgow. She was expected home this week and the news of her change of plans comes as a surprise to her host of friends here.

Miss Robison is the second daughter of the late Mrs. Judith Robison, and belongs to one of Paducah's most prominent families and has a distinguished Virginia ancestry. She is exceptionally bright and gifted and is a member of some of the city's leading literary clubs. Her many fine and splendid attributes have endeared her to a large circle of friends, and she will be missed in the social, literary and religious life of Paducah.

Mr. Glasgow is a prominent Virginian and is a distant cousin of Miss Ellen Glasgow the authoress, and, also, of Mr. J. O. Ford, of Richmond, Va., who married Miss Lucie Robison a younger sister.

This will break up the pleasant Robison home here, and much regret will be felt by all who visit it. An older sister, Mrs. Isaac Dailam, lives in Palestine, Texas, and a brother, Mr. Thomas Robison, having gone to Virginia recently, Mrs. J. O. Ford expects to come soon and close up the home and see to their business interests here.

Mr. Claude E. Cox and Miss Laura Arant, of Palma, Marshall county, closed last night and were married at Metropolis, Ill., today by Justice Thomas Liggett, and will return this evening. They were accompanied by Mr. Sexton Alexander and Miss Myrtle Franklin. The quartet of young people passed through Paducah today on their way home.

The marriage of Attorney Oscar Kahn and Mrs. Lulu Slegleton is announced to take place Tuesday, October 18th, at 8 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Slegleton's brother-in-law, Mr. L. L. Jones, at Sixth and Clark. Rabbi David Alexander will officiate. The couple, after a bridal trip to St. Louis, will reside at the home of Mr. Jones.

The bans were yesterday published at the St. Francis De Sales church of Miss Mary C. Donigan and Mr. James P. Hofflich. The marriage will be Tuesday, October 25th, at 9 a. m., Rev. Father Janzen officiating. Miss Donigan is daughter of Mr. Owen Donigan, of North Eighth street, and Mr. Hofflich is foreman of the Illinois Central shops here.

The bans for the marriage of Miss Della Willett and Mr. Martin Orange were published at St. Francis De Sales church yesterday, the wedding to take place Tuesday, October 25th, at 8 o'clock. Miss Willett is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Willett, of West Broadway, and the groom a resident of Princeton, Ky., and a traveling salesman for the Kenner Woolwine Company, of Nashville. The attendants for the wedding will be Miss Henrietta Willett and Mr. James Orange, sister of the bride and brother of the groom, respectively. The couple will go to St. Louis on a bridal tour.

Mr. James M. Cash and Miss Ora B. Carrico will be married tomorrow evening at the Catholic church at Faucy Farm, Graves county, Rev. Father Haseloy officiating. The couple will go to St. Louis. Both are well known in Graves county and the bride has a number of friends and relatives in Paducah.

The St. Louis papers announce the marriage of Mr. J. Hart Kelley, third clerk of the Grey Eagle, to a Miss Cole, of Versailles, Ill. Mr. Kelley is well known in Paducah, this being his home. He has run on a number of boats out of here, but for the past

HALLIE
BY ERMINIE
RIVES

She closed her eyes again, sick and faint in the reaction.

He did not speak at once, but she felt his arms, which were under and around her, shake with a little tremor and draw her closer.

"Suppose," she breathed, her eyes still closed—"suppose it had struck better?"

"We should not have felt it—a quick death and merciful."

She shuddered.

"They would have found us—so," he said, with an underbreath.

She lifted her head at this and started, the color coming back to her lips.

"Help me out."

Struggling under the splintered door frame, he assisted her to the ground.

It was a flurry of broken branches, sprawling spokes, thrusting springs and distorted fragments of wood.

A snatched flash of foot in thickness lay with its end upon the bent and twisted step.

"Had I kept it," would have struck me?"

"Yes," he answered.

"So swift and terrible!" she said, her voice catching. "Like a bolt from a cloud—like the judgment. That moment I would not live it again for worlds."

He spoke with a flame in his cheeks.

"And I—I would I might! Ah, I would endure all agonies for that moment again, that moment when—"

"Monstrous!"

He stopped at the indignation in her tone.

"Let us go," she said. "Gladden Hall is just behind these planks."

"I beg you?"

"Behind, sir," she added coldly, "that is late as yesterday I had never seen you!"

"So late as yesterday?" he cried. "To measure all things by the hands of the clock? What has time to do with the feeling of the heart? Is death all that comes suddenly, unexpectedly? Are there no sweeter things that come so swiftly? Ah, a man can live a year in an hour, mademoiselle—a lifetime with in one little day. Yesterday, you say? Mademoiselle, yesterday for me were only dawn and dusk and gray sky; now there are flowers and birds and laughter and all glad things. Shall I tell you what has changed it all? The moment you spoke to me on the wharf, the hour we have ridden side by side along the field, most of all, mademoiselle, the moment you will not have me tell you of, that one moment I lived when death came falling out of the sky upon us, when you cried out—when?"

"Stop!" she protested, her hands to her red cheeks.

"When your face was on my shoulder I felt your breath! You clung to me to me you, the fairest body God has made! My name was around you!"

"This," she gasped. "No more! You have no right!"

"Right?"

"No!" she cried stormily, her breast rising and falling. "No! You presume upon a danger into which fate thrust me without my wish. Why, we have but ridden a full league. I know not even your name! Who are you to speak thus to me?"

"Whom do you?"

"I am only a Frenchman, mademoiselle, only a man who gazed upon your face in a crowd and whom—whom you asked to ride beside you in the coach."

His tone had fallen. "Is it his fault, mademoiselle, if his custom is not the custom of your land, if he knows not to repress, if he must say what he feels?" He finished very low. "Is it his fault that he cannot forget that your face hid itself upon his breast for one little moment here in the forest?"

She was alternately flushing and paling, and her eyes were shining. "You must not! You must not!" she cried out with softer voice.

With the words she started walking rapidly, hesitating without glancing at him. The dimness of the interlaced branches overhead parted; the trees stood square. Just ahead a leafy arch let in the fading sunlight and a view of yellow stubble and beyond this showed a broad gateway—twelve brick pillars crowned with martlets—opening on a winding road to a great house that looked a many windowed welcome.

It sat snugly in a hill from whose crest a terraced lawn fell softly into the arms of the shining, twisted river—a southern home in its high days, its dairy, meat house, tea house and granaries all dazzling white against the blue and olive of sky and wood. Spacious offices stood to the left, and wide negro quarters squatted at some distance behind it. Near by a tiny creek sparkled down to wash a tangle of beeches. From adjacent fields came the plying whistle of partridges in grass.

Just before the gateway the young man's voice caught her. "For the sake of that one moment, mademoiselle," he said huskily.

She turned, looked back and held out her hand. He dropped upon one knee and touched his lips to her fingers.

"I am glad I owe my life to you," he said softly.

azing at him uncertainly an instant, she hesitated, then turned and ran rapidly up the winding drive. Her bound lifted his sing head from the columned porch and came leaping down to meet her, while his white drew Mignon Ey-albie peering from the kitchen door, her weather-beaten face dilating into a smile.

"I saw, dar come mummy's honey child safe an' soon!" she cried to Mrs. Tillotson, who came hastily to the steps and waved her hand at the girl's fluttering signal.

"Down, sweet! Down!" cried Anne as the bound leaped against her. She stopped, bethinking herself of the indenture.

She ran back to the gateway, but the young Frenchman was not to be seen. As she stood peering into the pines the breeze went playing with some torn bits of paper scattered in the ruts. She picked up several fragments and strove to decipher them. "Which term the mild hand servant faithfully shall serve . . . does covenant with the said Louis Armand, holder," she read.

"Then she caught her breath and, for- bearing to glance in the direction of the forest road, walked toward the anxious figure on the porch of the great house.

CHAPTER V.

IN the Swan tavern, which lifted its yellow Holland brick front and peaked shingle roof not far from the Yorktown river front, the candles had been early lighted that night. There, as day faded out, sitting at his ease at a table in the long parlor, sat a man of middle age whose effrontery and insolence had long ago earned him cordial hatred throughout Williamsburg. He was Captain Foy, and to cleverer lum-

He looked up as another guest entered and dropped his knife clattering.

"Jarrat!" he cried. "I thought you were in London!"

"So I was; so I was, but I am returned today," Jarrat answered coolly.

"How goes it at Williamsburg, Captain Foy? And how does Governor Dunmore with that bill of disloyalty?"

"He is away with the troops to quell the Indians on the Pennsylvania frontier."

"He will not see Williamsburg again before November. You stayed not long abroad. I heard you were gone for a year or of duty pleasing."

"These Virginius got in the blood," Jarrat admitted a sigh. "I have lost the old land love, I fear."

He did not see fit to tell the true reason of his own voyage or that he had been more in Paris than in London. He was a more subtle servant of Dunmore's than the governor's aid, who dreamed he knew all of the great man's mind.

"What has happened since I left, captain?" he inquired.

ON THE SAFETY OF OVER-EATING.

The Rule of Choosing the Lesser of Two Evils Applies to the Way You Eat.

I want to know how a man is to know when he has had enough?

The Pious Fathers, I believe, had a quaint saying to the effect that you should always rise from the table feeling as if you could eat some more.

But the question is, how much more? Just when to stop?

That's the point.

The rule is wrong, because it's no rule at all.

It is lax and unscientific.

It is likely to lead to the dangerous habit of eating too little.

And eating too little—or digesting too little, which amounts to the same thing—is the cause of nine-tenths of the diseases from which humanity suffers today.

What is disease?

It is simply uneven balance between waste and repair.

Some organs lack strength to carry on the special work for which it was created.

Where shall it find the strength it lacks?

In drugs?

Ten thousand times, NO!

Better die than become a hopeless drug fiend.

No, in food.

"But," you say, "I eat a plenty of good food every day!"

True, dear friend; but you don't digest it.

And food, undigested, is mere poison.

So, to make food do you good, you must take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The great thing about Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is, that their action does not depend upon cumulative druggery.

They cannot create a habit.

They contain no ingredients to "pick you up," "tone up your nervous system" or furnish whip energy by calling out your vital reserve force.

They create new strength, force and energy—out of your Food.

If taken sparingly, they will do you no good at all.

So, eat to live, and live to eat, with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The cause of our present civilization is exhaustion.

And exhaustion, whether of brain, nerves, physical strength, or vital force, is caused by starvation.

Of two evils, it is better to overeat (and prevent indigestion with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets), than to rise from the table, not having eaten enough to repair the exhaustion of your vital forces.

For exhaustion or starvation leads to the most varied forms of sickness or disease, brought on by inability of the weakened vitality to counteract the disease—poisons, and microbes.

Whereas the well-fed and well-nourished person, without ever feeling the worse for it, can expose himself to dangers, the mere thought of which would drive the weak, starving dyspeptic into a panic fit.

Good food, well digested, is the great secret of a healthful existence here on earth.

So eat heartily, every day, of the best food you can get, and regulate the working of your digestive machinery with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

As a result, you will be astonished to find how much stronger and livelier you feel, how much more and better work you can do, how much more pleasure you will get out of life, and how your old enemy, that chronic trouble which has fastened upon your weak spot, wherever it is, will up and away, and ever after leave you in peace, health and comfort.

There's more truth than poetry in all this.

Try it once.

CURES WINTER COUGH.

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main St., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got for her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Duffels, Koll & Co.

Matthew Hanson, formerly a member of the United States senate, died suddenly at his residence in Northampton county, North Carolina, on his seventy-eighth birthday.

What Came of . . . An Ideal

(Original.)

There was once an artist, who achieved great fame in the painting of one picture. He never painted another that came anywhere near equalling it, but his masterpiece alone was enough to make his fortune.

While struggling for recognition he fell in love with and married a young girl—Helena was her name—who to him was perfection. It is well known that lovers endow the objects of their love with every attraction, and this man endowed his wife especially with great beauty. He painted a picture of her not as his laughing-face, but as she was, and when the picture was completed he supplied his beauty from his imagination, just as he had done in the case of the original.

Soon after the completion of the portrait Helena sickened and died. The husband was inconsolable. He would sit all day looking at the portrait, which to him was even more beautiful than it was when he painted it. A whole year passed, and he had done nothing but mourn. He was so poor that his clothes were rags, and he had nothing to eat except dry bread. Then one day upon learning that there was to be a competition for an altar piece for a cathedral, a Madonna and child, he roused himself to an effort to win the prize. The winning picture must be a wonder, and three years were given in which to produce it.

The artist knew that the first thing for him to do was to find a model. It was the spring of the year, and he sallied forth into the country, thinking to discover among the dairymaids or shepherdesses what he desired, for it was from the simpler classes that the mother of Jesus came. The peasant girl and sunshine brightened the spirit within him, and he became interested in his search. He visited many young women, but found none that he thought would do for a divine model. His ideal was the face of his lost wife, and one may look a long while without finding an ideal of anything.

One morning he passed a dairy farm, and, going back to the cow sheds, a girl arose from milking and greeted him with a very pleasant smile—a smile of sympathy, for the man was in rags and looked hungry. She offered him a cup of milk fresh from the cow and then took him into the neat farmhouse and gave him a good meal. When the farmer and his wife came in they gave him a hearty shake of the hand and approved of what their daughter Cecilia had done.

The artist stayed at the farm several days. Indeed, they would not let him go till he had gained strength to travel. During those few days it was growing upon him that the face of Cecilia was especially suited for the mother of one who, though divine, was born in a manger.

The artist confessed his profession and told the farmer of his object. The man was so pleased that his daughter should sit for a picture of the Virgin that he consented to take her to the artist's studio himself.

For months the picture of the Madonna was growing on the canvas. Unconsciously the painter, though he followed Cecilia's features and outline, put in the expression with which his imagination had endowed his lost wife. The picture therefore became a thing of heavenly beauty. But the artist could find no child that would do for a model of the infant Saviour. He had sketched a child's outline in the picture, hoping every day to come upon the model he wanted. The babe should resemble its mother, and no babe could be found with the features of Cecilia.

By this time the artist had become engrossed in his work. Gradually his imaginary conception of his wife's beauty was transferred to the model and through her to the canvas, though of this he was unconscious. Then one day it occurred to him to marry Cecilia, and, perhaps they would have a child that would do for the model infant Jesus. Her father consented, and the marriage took place.

After his marriage the artist left her picture as it was, hoping for a child from which he might fill in the child in the picture. A little son came to him, and when it was about fifteen months old he transferred the image to the canvas. The Madonna was a wonder; the child had inherited her features, and her father adored him. When the picture was finished the few who were permitted to see it were struck dumb with admiration. But one thing puzzled the artist. No one saw any likeness between the Madonna and Cecilia.

It was a happy morning for the artist and his family when the award was announced and he was found to be the winner. The prize was enough to keep them very modestly, and they not only enjoyed a competence, but the fame the father and husband had won. He tried often again to do such work, but never succeeded. However, his mind on a picture was ever after sufficient to insure its sale for a large sum.

One day several years after the winning of the prize the artist went up into his garret to hunt for a frame he hoped might be there. His old pictures were scattered about, mostly doubts of his student days. There was one picture, the portrait of a woman, that he could not remember ever having painted. He took it up and held it to the light. The face was a very commonplace one. He tried to remember what model he could have used in his painting. Suddenly the truth flashed upon him. It was the picture he had made of Helena.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, KY., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles, and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

Mrs. JOHN SMOLLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

Mrs. SUE GRAMAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

NEW SECRETARY

Thursday or Friday night the board of directors of the Commercial Club will meet to elect a successor to the late Secretary George H. Dains.

DuBois noted as secretary until the death of Mr. Dains, and now that the position is vacant, Mr. DuBois stated that the position will be immediately filled.

Mr. Dains made an excellent secretary for the association, and his loss will be greatly felt. He was a painstaking man who never made an unnecessary recommendation or placed any matter before a possible newcomer to Paducah in a false light. It is understood there are several prospective applicants for the place.

DR. GEORGE L. MORRE, WHO LIVES EIGHT MILES FROM JUDGE PARKER, IS HERE.

Dr. George La Morre, of New York, is in the city visiting his cousin, Mr. L. S. Dabois, the well known druggist, and will go to St. Louis from Paducah to attend the fair.

Dr. La Morre is a man prominent in both social and political life in New York state. He has been an intimate friend of Hon. Alton B. Parker, nominee of the Democratic party for president, since early youth when they played together. He has lived for many years within eight miles of Judge Parker on the Indiana river and relates many amusing tales of their early life.

Dr. La Morre was in politics for a time, attending many conventions when Judge Parker took active part but of late has dropped out of political life. He says he cares little for public office and prefers his private medical practice to it. Dr. La Morre is a man of pleasing personality and likes Paducah and Kentucky immensely. He has a rather rough idea of Kentucky and was surprised to see what a progressive and up-to-date state it is. Dr. La Morre will be in Paducah a few days longer before leaving for the fair.

SMALL BLAZE

FIREMEN DISCOVERED IT BEFORE IT GAINED MUCH HEADWAY.

The No. 1 fire department was called to the Silver Dollar saloon on North Fourth Street just across from the station house, last night about 9 o'clock to extinguish a blaze in a trash pile in the second story.

A lot of straw and boxes had in some way become ignited but the blaze was discovered before it had gained any headway and the firemen had no trouble in putting it out. The damage will amount to little. The floor was slightly charred and the chemicals dropped onto the ground floor but did not get on the bar or fixtures. The damage in dollars will amount to less than $100.
